IN-GAME ENTERTAINMENT

SKY GUY

Born and raised in Chicago, Sky Guy is the team's biggest fan. With five older sisters, all of whom were basketball players, Sky Guy formed a love for women's basketball at an early age. Sky Guy can be seen at every Sky game at Allstate Arena as well as at Sky clinics, girls' basketball tournaments, parades and libraries throughout the Chicagoland area. Sky Guy is always looking to make new friends and meet other Sky fans so say "hi" when you see him.

SKY SQUAD

This five-man aerial ensemble amazes fans with extraordinary dunking displays, complete with mid-air passes, flips and twists. Besides performing at Allstate Arena for Chicago Sky games, Sky Guy and the Sky Squad have dunked all over Illinois at sporting events, birthday parties and city festivals. Sky Guy and the Sky Squad will appear at numerous Sky home games in 2011.

SKY DRUMLINE

The Sky Drumline brings the noise at every Sky home game. Started by Jamie Poindexter seven years ago in his Englewood home as a way to keep busy, the Sky Drumline now performs all over Chicago. His mission is to encourage kids to stay in school, stay out of trouble and use their talent. Poindexter's mantra is: "When kids get involved in a drumline, it changes their lives."

MCDONALD'S FLY KIDS

The Fly Kids are members of the Chicago Boyz Acrobatic Team, started in 1999 by former circus performer and competitive tumbler, Tim Shaw. Team members learn discipline, respect, hard work, integrity and team work. The Fly Kids' high energy performances feature tumbling, high flying trampoline, and awe-inspiring tricks and stunts inside of twirling jump ropes.

FLIGHT CREW

Choreographed by Cathy Core, the creator and coach of the Chicago Bulls' Luvabulls, these dancers all fall between the ages of seven and thirteen. Their unique dance routines will inspire you to get up on your feet and move. The Flight Crew will appear at eight Sky home games in 2011.

SKY ROCKETS

Also choreographed by the Luvabulls' Cathy Core, this junior dance group is comprised of girls aged seven to seventeen. These girls participated in a special ticket promotion that enabled them to take part in a weekly professional dance program to learn creative dance routines and perform in four Chicago Sky home games. The Sky is proud to provide an opportunity such as this to Chicago's youth and future performers.

SKY IN THE COMMUNITY

BEING ACTIVE IN THE COMMUNITY IS A HIGH PRIORITY FOR THE CHICAGO SKY.

The Sky participates in numerous community projects throughout the year and focuses on building relationships with community groups and organizations. By getting involved in communities throughout the Chicagoland area, the Sky hopes to inspire fans to get involved.

WNBA Fit

WNBA Fit encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine. The content of the program is communicated and delivered through a team of spokespeople and national and local events. 2011 programming includes Sky players, coaches and staff running instructional basketball clinics throughout the year. A Chicago Sky Cares Fitness Festival will also take place prior to the July 19th game against Seattle .

The fitness festival plus an in-game experience is designed to show girls aged 7 to 16 ways to get active. The Sky Cares Foundation works with local girl-serving organizations (Girls in the Game, Girls on the Run, GoGirlGo Chicago, Step Up Women's Network, Chicago Park District and the Mayor's Fitness Council as well as Chicago Public Schools) to identify girls from low income areas of Chicago and welcome them into an inspiring community of positive role-model volunteers. During the fitness festival various organizations show girls how to get moving whether it's playing a sport, dancing or jumping double-dutch. At each station, girls will watch and participate in demonstrations and interact with instructors, with the goal of helping them make a fitness plan. Following an afternoon at the fitness festival, the girls will share in the excitement of a Chicago Sky game which affords an unforgettable opportunity for these girls to witness firsthand the power and poise of professional female athletes and provides a motivating message of what can be accomplished through dedication, determination and discipline.

WNBA Cares Week of Service

On May 31st the Chicago Sky players, coaches and staff will wait tables and bartend to collect tips to be donated directly to the American Diabetes Association. The event is open to the public and ends at approximately 8:30 p.m. Through their tips, Sky fans will have the chance to obtain autographs and photos. The team will also host a raffle where fans can win unique autographed Sky memorabilia.

Go Green

The WNBA has partnered with the Natural Resources Defense Council (NRDC) in an effort to become more environmentally friendly. The Sky will hold a Go Green awareness night on June 25th and host an additional green event in the community.

Breast Health Awareness

For fifteen years, the WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. The WNBA and its teams have raised over $2.5 million to aid in the fight against breast cancer. The Chicago Sky has partnered this season with the Chicagoland Area Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure. As part of this partnership the Sky has created a Pink ticket package which includes a ticket to the August 7th game, a pink Sky t-shirt and for every Pink package sold, the Chicago Sky will donate $5.00 to Chicagoland Area Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure. The money collected by Komen goes to education, research, training and screening to eradicate breast cancer.

As part of the day's festivities, the Sky players will wear pink uniforms, and the Sky encourages all fans to wear pink in an effort to "pink out" the arena. At the game, breast cancer survivors will be honored guests, and a silent auction will take place where fans will have a chance to bid on the pink game jerseys, numerous sports experiences and autographed memorabilia from teams and athletes from the Chicagoland area as well as the WNBA. All of these proceeds will be donated to Chicagoland Area Affiliate of Susan G Komen for the Cure.

HELPING BUILD GIRL'S SELF-ESTEEM AND PROVIDING GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN WITH POSITIVE MENTORS.

The Sky Cares' mission is to help build girls' self-esteem and provide girls and young women with positive mentors. Sky Cares was founded by the Chicago Sky in April 2008 and successfully launched its signature programs, Chicago Sky Fitness Festival and Learn to Soar, to actively support the team's mission through a series of workshops and game experiences. The Sky Cares Foundation, a 501c3 non-profit foundation linked to the WNBA Chicago Sky, wants to challenge the status quo that has been created for girls.

Over the last few years, thousands of 7 to 18 year old girls from diverse ethnic, economic and geographical communities have participated in Sky Cares' events. This year Sky Cares aims to again have a direct and sustainable impact by working collaboratively with local girl-empowering organizations to identify and serve girls from underprivileged Chicagoland areas by:

- >> Increasing girls' self esteem and access to positive, strong leaders and mentors
- >> Teaching conflict resolution and proper ways to overcome obstacles
- >> Teaching ways to get active that fit with daily schedules at home, school and life
- >> Teaching how to become confident and positive individuals

WNBA CARES

WNBA CARES LEAGUE & MARKETING PROGRAMS OVERVIEW

Through WNBA Cares, our teams, players and partners are deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

NBA/WNBA FIT

The NBA/WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families through grassroots programs and events, and products related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. In cooperation with well-established health and wellness organizations, NBA/WNBA FIT informs, educates and engages children and families in healthy living practices.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

WNBA READ TO ACHIEVE

The Read to Achieve campaign is a program that values reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations.

DRIBBLE TO STOP DIABETES

Launched in January 2011, the 'Dribble to Stop Diabetes' campaign raises awareness of the American Diabetes Association's "Stop Diabetes" movement and addresses an important piece of diabetes care and prevention – physical fitness. The program will be aimed at using the simple and fun activity of dribbling a basketball as a way to promote healthy, active lifestyles and diabetes awareness, prevention and management during in-arena team nights.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

Launched in February 2009, Vaccines for Teens is a national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against meningitis, flu and pertussis. Press events are hosted by WNBA teams and joined by the Society of Adolescent Health and Medicine, sanofi pasteur and the NBA league office (including NBA Legend Bob Lanier). WNBA Legend Lisa Leslie is a campaign spokesperson.

JAMBA JUICE

In partnership with Jamba Juice, WNBA FIT will highlight both companies' commitment to promoting fitness/healthy nutrition through joint promotional activities with WNBA teams.

COKE LIVE POSITIVELY CLINICS

In partnership with Coke, WNBA Cares will host five (5) WNBA FIT Live Positively Clinics in priority markets. These fitness clinics will be led by Players or Legends, for more than 75 youth.

MICHAEL ALTER

MICHAEL ALTER CHAIRMAN/PRINCIPLE OWNER

Sky owner Michael Alter, a Chicago native with a deep commitment to the city, is dedicated to his franchise and sees it as a way to encourage opportunities for young women in professional athletics. He holds strong beliefs that Chicago is the best sports town in the country, which is a big reason why he decided Chicago needed a WNBA team. Alter's values include hard work, education, excellence and sportsmanship, all characteristics he believes that will lead the Sky to succeed as both an organization and a team. Alter, who was recognized in the Crain's Chicago Business 40 under 40 list in 2000, is the President of Chicago-based The Alter Group, one of the nation's 10 largest commercial real estate developers. Since becoming President in 1995, he has transformed his family's company from a strong, regional office and industrial developer into one of the nation's preeminent privately held full-service real estate companies.

Today, the company has 6,700,000 square feet of space worth $712,000,000 under development in 25 different markets across the nation, from Washington D.C. to Orange County, CA. Alter has created three new companies under The Alter Group umbrella in the last 7 years -- Alter+Care, EnTrust Realty Advisors and Alter Construction Group -- each of which has become a strong entity in its respective field.

In 1994, Alter founded City Year Chicago, a cutting-edge, non-profit, national-service program which is best known for its signature program, the City Year Youth Service Corps. The goal of the program is to bring together approximately 1,000 people ranging in age from 17-24 from diverse backgrounds and hold them to a full-time commitment of a year of community service, leadership development and civic engagement where they mentor children. During City Year's existence, more than 1 million hours of service in local communities has been logged. When asked why he thought to bring a WNBA franchise to Chicago, Alter stated, "For me, it was like meeting Ernie Banks or Bill Russell in their prime. I was so impressed, not only by the WNBA players' prowess as athletes but their intelligence, their passion, their dignity and their power to inspire. After meeting these amazing women and learning more about the WNBA, it did not make sense to me that the third largest city in the country, and frankly, in my opinion, the best sports town in the country, did not have a WNBA team."

Alter has a Bachelor of Arts degree in government from Harvard University and a law degree from the University of Chicago. He and his wife Ellen are parents of three children, all of whom are interested in sports and keep their parents very busy. They live in Winnetka, IL.

MARGARET STENDER

MARGARET STENDER CHAIRMAN AND MINORITY OWNER

As the first employee, Margaret Stender served as the founding President and CEO of the Chicago Sky for the first six years of this WNBA franchise. She led the team development from a vision and a dream to a thriving multifaceted professional organization. Margaret has overseen several milestones: a growing passionate fan base, partnerships with many diverse businesses, the venue move to Allstate Arena, a monumental T.V. broadcast schedule, the creation of the Chicago Sky Cares Foundation plus an exceptional athlete roster which includes three WNBA all-stars, one who also plays on Team USA.

"We have been proud to introduce our world-class athletes as exceptional role models," said Stender. "It has been rewarding to showcase strong accomplished women as an inspiration and a force for positive social change."

Margaret experienced corporate success prior to joining the Sky throughout her 22 years in business while holding positions that included: President of the Juice Drinks for PepsiCo, President for Quaker Oats Ready-To-Eat Cereals and Senior VP/GM of Travel Solutions for Rand McNally.

Stender attended the University of Richmond where she was a three sport student athlete and was elected co-captain of the basketball team for three years. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education and Masters Degree in Business Administration from the University of Virginia.

Margaret, originally from Virginia, resides on the north side of Chicago with her two school-aged children. She serves on the Boards of The Latin School of Chicago and the Girl Scouts of Greater Chicago & Northwest Indiana. She is also a member of The Chicago Network.

ADAM FOX PRESIDENT AND CEO

In his first year as President and CEO of the Chicago Sky, Adam Fox oversees team operations in all matters pertaining to the day-to-day functioning of the franchise on the administrative side of the organization.

Adam Fox is the Sky's second Chief Executive Officer since the company's formation in 2005 and brings nearly 20 years of executive sports experience to the top of the Sky front office. He was promoted to the position on October 1, 2010. Fox had joined the team in October 2007 as Chief Operating Officer.

Fox plans to have the Sky focused on winning basketball games and growing the fan base. In 2010 the Sky's attendance increased by 12%, and he intends to further that momentum through ticket sales, sponsorship sales and creating large-scale awareness.

"We have built a solid foundation here on which to expand," said Fox. "Moving forward our short term goal is to continue to keep the upward trend we have going. Long term it's about making the Sky and women's basketball part of the regular sports fabric in this city and beyond."

Prior to joining the Sky, Fox spent 14 years with the Chicago Wolves of the American Hockey League. During his time with the Wolves, the '02, '00 and '98 AHL Champions, Fox took on a variety of roles including ticket sales, managing merchandise, sponsorships sales, directing game operations and ultimately leading the front office as the Executive Vice President of Business Operations for his final eight years with the team.

For five years leading up to his time with the Wolves, Fox worked in sales and sports marketing. For three years Fox worked for Elite Sports Marketing, operating temporary sports memorabilia stores at major sporting events around the country. Fox also spent two years as district manager for Retail Star, Inc.

Fox graduated from Indiana University in 1989 with a degree in speech. He and his wife Brooke have two daughters and live in the northern suburbs.

COACHES AND TRAINERS

POKEY CHATMAN JEFF HOUSE CHRISTIE SIDES ANN CROSBY MICHELLE KANIA TEAM PHYSICIANS

HEAD COACH/GENERAL MANAGER

HEAD COACH/GENERAL MANAGER

Pokey Chatman was named head coach of the Chicago Sky on Oct. 29, 2010. The 2011 season marks her first in the WNBA. She is the Sky's fourth head coach.

Chatman comes to the Sky after coaching professional women's basketball in Russia and 15 years on the coaching staff at Louisiana State University (LSU), her alma mater.

She served two seasons as an assistant coach for the Russian Spartak Moscow Region before being promoted to head coach in 2010. That year, Chatman led the team to a perfect 16-0 record in the Euroleague, the most competitive European basketball league, and also claimed the esteemed 2010 Euroleague Championship.

Chatman also coached the Slovakian national women's basketball team from 2008-2010. In 2009 she took the traditionally unsuccessful Slovakian squad to the EuroBasket in Riga, where they narrowly missed a spot in the FIBA World Championship.

Chatman was named head coach of the LSU Lady Tigers in the 2003-2004 season, when Sue Gunter was forced to take medical leave mid-season. Chatman went a remarkable 47-3 in her first 50 games as head coach, the second best starting record in women's basketball history. As head coach, she took the Tigers to three consecutive finishes in the Final Four. For her work in her first full season as a head coach, she was named the U.S. Basketball Writers Association National Coach of the Year, Women's Basketball Coaches Association National Coach of the Year, Naismith National Coach of the Year and the Victor Award Female Coach of the Year. Chatman earned a coaching record of 90-14 with the Lady Tigers in three seasons as head coach and 15 seasons overall.

She has earned two gold medals with USA basketball, first as a player for the Junior National Team in 1987, and then as an assistant coach of the World University team in 2005.

As an LSU point guard from 1987-1991, Chatman led the Lady Tigers to their first ever SEC Tournament title in 1991, and earned recognition as the tournament's Most Valuable Player. In her playing career at LSU, she was named All-SEC three times, named Kodak All-American in 1991, and set 20 school records.

Chatman earned her Bachelor's Degree from LSU in December of 1991. She is originally from Ama, Louisiana.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JEFF HOUSE ASSISTANT COACH

In his first season with the Sky, Jeff House brings over 25 years of basketball coaching experience at the NBA, WNBA, college and high school levels.

House started his professional basketball career in New York as a member of the Knicks game night video staff in 1998. That same year, he served the New York Liberty under Nancy Darsch as video coordinator and advance scout. When Richie Adubato took over as head coach of the Liberty in 1999, House was promoted to Liberty assistant coach and took on that role full time. He served the team in that position until 2004, and was an instrumental part of the team's 1999, 2000 and 2002 WNBA Eastern Conference Championships.

House joined the Washington Mystics as its top assistant coach in 2005. After one season, House took the recruiting coordinator and assistant coaching position at the University of Virginia. House helped propel the Virginia women's basketball program to the top of the Atlantic Coast Conference by bringing in top-ranked recruiting classes in each of his four years with the program. House was instrumental in the recruiting and development of Monica Wright, who was chosen by the Minnesota Lynx as the second overall pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft. He also played a role in recruiting 2009 draft picks Aisha Mohammed (Minnesota) and Lyndra Little (Connecticut).

Relocating to Virginia in 2006, House started his own basketball website AllBasketballReview.com. He has also acted as an outside consultant for several college basketball teams, helping evaluate aspects of their program including practice and recruiting as well as their players. House also works with the Virginia Basketball Academy on the development of a Pre-K through 4th grade league that will launch in 2011 focusing on character development through the game of basketball.

House's coaching career began while he was still in college, getting his start in 1985 under former Houston Rockets Head Coach Jeff Van Gundy at McQuaid Jesuit High School in Rochester, NY. Since then, he's had the opportunity to work with a number of top coaches, later coaching at UMass Lowell under current Orlando Magic Head Coach Stan Van Gundy, and with Bob Wenzel at Rutgers University. House played college basketball at Nazareth College in Rochester, NY before suffering a career-ending injury.

House received his bachelor's degree from Nazareth in 1987 in art education. He earned a master's degree in teaching, guidance and counseling from Jacksonville University in 1991. House and his wife Ann Leonard-House, who is the former Head Coach of women's volleyball at UMass-Lowell and Rutgers, reside in Virginia in the off-season with their two children.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHRISTIE SIDES ASSISTANT COACH

Christie Sides enters her first season as a Sky assistant coach after eight years of coaching experience at the college, international and professional levels.

Since 2008, Sides has been an assistant on Spartak Moscow Region in Russia, where she helped Head Coach Pokey Chatman lead Spartak to consecutive FIBA EuroLeague Championships in 2008 and 2009. Sides has also served as an assistant on the Slovakian Women's National Team coaching staff since 2008 helping the team qualify for the European Championships in 2009, 2010 and 2011. The Slovaks took eighth place in 2009, their highest finish of Sides' tenure.

From 2004-2007 Sides was an assistant on the Louisiana State University staff also under Coach Chatman. She helped guide the Lady Tigers program to three Final Fours and two Southeastern Conference regular season titles in her three seasons with the team. Prior to LSU, Sides spent the 2003-04 season at Louisiana Tech as an assistant coach.

Sides began her coaching career as the head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach at Ruston (La.) High School where she served under Ricky Durrett. While at Ruston, Sides helped guide the Lady Bearcats to consecutive state playoff appearances.

Athletically, Sides played her first two collegiate seasons at Ole Miss for Hall of Fame coach Van Chancellor and helped the Rebels to a 34-22 overall record. She then transferred to Louisiana Tech where she finished her playing career for fellow Hall of Fame coach Leon Barmore. Sides helped the Lady Techsters to a 61-6 record in two seasons, including a trip to the 1999 Final Four. She holds the career record at Tech for three-point field goal percentage and ranks seventh in three-pointers made and eighth in three-pointer attempted.

Earlier in her playing career, Sides led Central Private High School to the state championship her senior season while earning the Louisiana Gatorade Player of the Year award and all-state honors. She ended her high school playing career ranked No. 1 in school history with 3,375 points.

Sides is a native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

WNBA HISTORY

LEAGUE OFFICE

645 Fifth Ave
New York, NY 10022
212) 688-WNBA (9622)

On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June 1997.

Since that day in 1996, there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman -- the first president of the WNBA
Sheryl Swoopes -- the first player signed to the WNBA

Cynthia Cooper -- the league's first Most Valuable Player

Houston Comets -- the first WNBA Champions

Lisa Leslie -- the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)

Lauren Jackson -- the first international player to win MVP (2007)

Candace Parker -- the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)

Sylvia Fowles -- the first goaltending call (6/3/2008 vs. LA)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, Calif. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A GROWING GAME

The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 14 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and the league reflects this trend, featuring 20 international players from 13 countries and territories at the end of the 2010 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased 277 percent since 1991 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 17 percent since 1991 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43 percent since 1991 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

WNBA HISTORY

ALL-STAR GAME

The San Antonio Silver Stars and the AT&T Center will host the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game in San Antonio on Saturday, July 23, 2011.

In place of the All-Star Game last season, the league hosted a special event, “WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun” at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville Conn. on July 10, 2010. The event showcased the world’s best female basketball players under one roof and helped the USA Basketball Women’s National Team prepare for the upcoming FIBA World Championship that fall. The USAB squad, featuring 10 WNBA players and one collegian, defeated a team of WNBA stars 99-72. Sylvia Fowles of the Chicago Sky and playing for USAB, earned game MVP honors. University of Connecticut’s Geno Auriemma coached the U.S. squad while Seattle Storm Head Coach Brian Agler led the WNBA team.

The first WNBA All-Star Game was held in New York at Madison Square Garden in 1999. The Garden also hosted the event in 2003 and in 2006. Washington’s Verizon Center (2002, 2007) is the other venue to host the game multiple times. Other All-Star Games were played in Phoenix (2000), Orlando (2001) and at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. (2009). Due to the Olympics, no All-Star Game was held in 2004 and 2008, although Radio City Music Hall in New York City was the site of an exhibition game on August 5, 2004, as the U.S. National Team, comprised mainly of WNBA greats, faced a squad of WNBA All-Stars in “WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Game at Radio City”

INSPIRING COACH

The Inspiring Coach Award is an annual honor introduced in 2007 to recognize coaches who have positively influenced athletes across numerous levels and whose achievements leave an indelible mark on sports as a whole. The University of Connecticut’s Geno Auriemma earned the honor in 2010 for his profound impact on female athletes and his demonstrated commitment, passion, and dedication to work, family, and community. Previous winners include Pat Summit, Kay Yow, and Jody Conradt.

INSPIRING WOMEN

The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice (2010), Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts (2009), Good Morning America’s Robin Roberts (2008), Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice (2007), and the WNBA All-Decade Team (2006).

DAWN STALEY AWARD

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley’s contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Winners include Chamique Holdsclaw (2009), Tamika Raymond (2008), and Tamika Catchings (2007). A member of the WNBA’s All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women’s basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

MARKETING

The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing and Promotional Partners: adidas, American Express, Bacardi, BBVA, CieAura, Coca-Cola, EA, Gatorade, General Mills/Wheaties, Hayworth, HP, InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG) Hotels, Jamba Juice, NewTek, Nike, Panasonic, Pepperidge Farm, Russell Athletic, Sanofi Aventis, Sanofi Pasteur, Spalding, T-Mobile

Media Partners: USA Today, Parenting Group, Essence, Heart & Soul

The WNBA’s marketing partners utilize the league to support women’s sports and reach its strong fanbase of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events.

The WNBA has an extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas. The sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 and again in 2011 – but also served as the presenter of the WNBA Draft since 2007. In 2008 adidas became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA’s entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals.

Five WNBA teams have entered the league’s Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, the Los Angeles Sparks with Farmers Insurance Group, the Seattle Storm with Microsoft search engine Bing, the New York Liberty with Foxwoods Resort Casino, and the Washington Mystics with Inova Health System.

ATTENDANCE/ TV RATINGS

The WNBA concluded the 2010 regular season with its fourth consecutive year of increased attendance. Postseason attendance increased for the third consecutive year, finishing up 36 percent over 2009.

For Games 2 and 3 of the 2010 WNBA Finals presented by adidas, average viewership on ESPN2 jumped 15 percent from 2009 and 79 percent from 2008.

The WNBA has one of the top five Facebook fanbases among sports leagues, with more than 318,000 fans (www.Facebook.com/wnba).

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2010 included more than 30 live national telecasts of regular-season and postseason contests on ESPN2 and ABC, and another 40-plus games on NBA TV, as well as games streamed on ESPN360.com.

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2011 will include 70 high-definition regular-season, playoff, and Finals games on ESPN2, ABC and NBA TV. In addition, all WNBA games are available online via WNBA LiveAccess unless: (a) They are televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com, or (b) They are televised at the same time a game is televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tipped off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

GLOBAL REACH

Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2010, for the fourth straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the previous total of 198 countries. In addition, for the fifth consecutive year, fans around the globe are able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on WNBA.com.

At the conclusion of the 2010 regular season, WNBA rosters featured 20 international players from 13 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent were the league's MVP, Seattle Storm forward/center Lauren Jackson (Australia), the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), and the Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal). They will be joined in 2011 by Tulsa's Elizabeth Cambage (Australia), whom the Shock selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2011 Draft.

WNBA DRAFT

The 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place on April 11 at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. It marked the first professional sports league draft held on the ESPN campus. The Minnesota Lynx selected University of Connecticut's Maya Moore as the top overall pick. The Tulsa Shock selected Elizabeth Cambage second, the Chicago Sky tabbed Courtney Vandersloot third, the Lynx chose Amber Harris fourth, and the Los Angeles Sparks took Jantel Lavender fifth to round out the first five selections.

OWNERSHIP

Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, and Tulsa Shock.

With the announcement on Oct. 20, 2009 that the Detroit Shock would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. began play in 2010. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel, and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008. In October, 2009, Kathy Betty purchased the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Michael Alter's Chicago Sky, and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

Entering the 2011 season, 10 women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Kathy Betty, Mary Brock, and Kelly Loeffler (Atlanta); and Dawn Trudeau, Ginny Gilder, and Lisa Brummel (Seattle Storm). A 10th, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Dr. Sheila Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

In 2010, Tina Thompson of the Los Angeles Sparks became the all-time scoring leader with 6,413 points, surpassing her former teammate, Lisa Leslie (6,263) who retired following the 2009 season.

Tina Charles won the 2010 WNBA Rookie of the Year award after averaging 15.5 ppg, 11.7 rpg, and 1.7 bpg, while also setting league records for most total rebounds (398) and doubles-doubles (22) in a single season.

Lauren Jackson won the 2010 WNBA MVP presented by Kia Motors award and also took home 2010 WNBA Finals MVP honors. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first – and only – WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star, and Finals MVP awards during the same season (2001).

Jackson also became the third player to earn WNBA MVP honors three times (2003, 2007, 2010), joining the Sparks' Lisa Leslie (2001, 2004, 2006) and the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes (2000, 2002, 2005). Houston's Cynthia Cooper earned the award twice (1997, 1998). The others to capture MVP honors are the Sacramento Monarchs' Yolanda Griffith (1999), the Sparks' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award), and the Phoenix Mercury's Diana Taurasi (2009).

Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the same season (2008). The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game.

Lauren Jackson became the WNBA's youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. Diana Taurasi subsequently surpassed Jackson as the fastest to 4,000 points in terms of fewest games played when she reached the milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

Lisa Leslie became the first player to dunk in a WNBA game when she did so on July 30, 2002 vs. the Miami Sol. Candace Parker, also of the Sparks, was the second, throwing down a dunk vs. the Indiana Fever on June 22, 2008.

WNBA CARES

Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week, Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, and Read to Achieve.

SKY BROADCAST TEAM

BRENT STOVER PLAY-BY-PLAY

Brent Stover enters his second year on the Sky broadcast team as the play-by-play announcer. Stover moved to Chicago in 2006 after spending six years as a Fox Sports Net anchor in both Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and St. Louis, Missouri. He worked for the Big Ten Network as an anchor and reporter where he was the play-by-play announcer since the network's inception in August of 2007. In August of 2010, Stover moved to CBS Sports Network where he calls collegiate football, basketball, and Olympic sports. He has covered Big 12 women's basketball, St. Louis Cardinals games, and the Big 10 Baseball Tournament. A Kansas native, he attended Kansas State where he ran track and cross country while receiving his bachelor's degree in journalism.

PATRICIA BABCOCK MCGRAW COLOR ANALYST

Patricia Babcock McGraw brings six years of experience, covering the Sky since its inception. Since 1997, she has been a reporter and columnist for the Daily Herald. Each week, she writes a women's sports column that is one of the few of its kind in the country. During basketball season, she is a color and in-studio analyst for women's basketball games on the Big Ten Network. She also is a color analyst for the Illinois girls state high school basketball tournament on the IHSA TV Network. Babcock McGraw is a 1994 graduate of the Medill School of Journalism at Northwestern University, where she played basketball for the Wildcats. Babcock McGraw earned all-Big Ten and academic all-Big Ten honors over the course of her career. A native of Culver, Indiana, Babcock McGraw was Indiana's 1990 Miss Basketball.
